NO BAIL FOR WIMAN.

Is Said He May Have Difficulty in Securing It.

Make No Statement Concerning His Alleged Forgeries.

Gen. Tracy Will Be Employed as His Counsel.

Erastus Wiman, the autocrat of Staten Itland, passed a cheerless day in the rembs. For the first time in his life, he ands himself behind prison bars.

Charges of forgeries and embezzlements aggregating $229,000 have been piled up against him and as yet he has not made any answer to these accusa-

His arrest yesterday afternoon was a reat surprise to the community, although over since Mr. Wiman's failure a year ago there have been rumors that matters not altogether satisfactory between him and his former partner, R.

No one, however, believed that Mr. Wiman could be charged with such serious crimes as those upon which the indictments against him have been ob-

In the two indictments found Mr. Wiman is charged by his former business oclates with forging and uttering two-cks, one for $5,000, with the name of W. Bullinger, and one for $5,580, with name of Ogden Brower, Treasurer the Campbell Printing Press and Mars-cturing Company. Company.

According to R. G. Dun & Co., these re only a sample of the business methonly a sample of the business meth-which Mr. Wiman pursued during connection with the firm, and when

The firm has evidently kept the matter The firm has evidently kept the matter nging over Mr. Wiman's head for the st year. In 'he expectation that he ght reimburse them for the money ich he had appropriated, but having come tired of waiting, the members we finally resolved to turn the matter or to the criminal courts.

Mr. Wiman passed a very quiet night the Tombs. He didn't sleep much, a Warden said, although they madeings as comfortable as possible for m, but that was not to be wondered for Mr. Wiman was taken completely surprise when he was arrested yester.

This morning he was up early and dered a good breakfast.

"He seems to be cheerful and con-tented," said Warden Fallon, "and I haven't heard a word of complaint from note was sent to the prisoner asking if he would make a statement for dication. Mr. Wiman sent out the

Would very gladly do so, but under advice of Jen. Tracy I will make no statement till my under comes. Am serry to deny anything to a sewspaper man, but must adhere to that determination for the present. When the ammunition of the moving powers against me is chausted, and their hired men are done arranging and trying me in the newspapers, perhaps I will be time for me to speak.

Mr. Wiman's cell is No. 3, on the first tier of the old prison. It is one of the cells in the famous "murderers" row." The distinguished Staten Islander was put in there because he arrived late last night and there was no cell ready for him in any of the upper tiers.

He spent the morning all alone until 19.30, when his son. Harry D. Wiman; his son-in-law, Norman S. Walker, Jr. and another gentleman named Mr. Morrow, called at the prison and were shown into his cell. hey remained with him about half er would not attempt to secure his is to be ship isse to-day.

his is a legal holiday, and it is difit to find people," said Mr. Wiman, my father thinks it best to postpone effort to get ball until to-morrow." think he will have no difficulty in hing ball. Yes, Gen. Tracy, I believe, ly father's counsel.

vell contented to "My father is very well contented to stay where he is until he can secure bail. He is bearing up very well consid-ering the unfortunate circumstances.". None of the District-Attorney's assist-ants was downtown to-day and no ar-rangements had been made to accept all had any been offered in Mr. Wiman's case. It was said, however, that it was by no means probable that Mr. Wiman would gret hall so easily.

by to means probable that Mr. Wiman would get ball so easily.

The amount fixed by Judge Martine, 15,000, is a large sum, and it is said that Mr. Wiman has aiready made one or two unsuccessful attempts to secure a bondsman. an. After he was arrested yesterday even he was under arrest and asked Mr.

sall to go on his bond.
latter told Mr. Wiman that he had sal estate in this city, so he would to dealine. to decline.
Tracy has been exerting himself biain bail for Mr. Wiman ever since latter's arrest yesterday. Thus however, he has not been successaithough he has visited many of Mr. nan's friends, who are said to be able to go on his bond, even for the of $22,000.

$25,000. said that when Mr. Wiman of the ill success of his counsel, of the ill success of his counsel, le up his mind to give up all ef-o secure ball, and said that he be content to remain in jail until uld be tried, and he would not his friends any farther about the office of Tracy, Boardman & t, in the Mills Building, it was said morning that Gen. Tracy was noteted downtown to-day. He would be no move in behalf of Mr. Wiman

BANKER ARNOLD SENTENCED. Henvy Penalty Imposed Upon a De

faulter in Lockport. (By Associated Press.)
LOCKPORT, N. Y., Feb. 22.-Jacob J.

Arnold, the defaulting bank cashier and day and sustained injuries that will probbeen expected generally that Ar-would make a sensational statehen given a chance to speak, but nothing. His lawyer, Richard, made a long plea for clemency, alled many of the charges that an made against Arnold. I wept bitterly while in the court-the was sentenced to eleven years r months in Auburn State Prison.

HAD STOLEN BRANDY.

Harlem Police Think They Have a Long-Looked-For Burglar.

a Cupoci, an Italian, twenty years f 245 East Ninety-fourth street, was $2,000 bail in Harlem Pelice Court corning on a charge of burglary an Frank Neuman, of the East eighth street station, saw Cupoci-of of Hartholomew Conroy's sa-i East Nitely-fourth street, short-i o'clock with several bottles of ander his arm.

y says that during the past few he has lost about $100 worth of A number of other complaints clary have been made by storein that locality.

Boss and Men Disagree as to the Cause of the Trouble. The strike of the shoemakers at the John J. Lattemann Shoe Manufacturing Company, as exclusively reported in yesterday's "Evening World," is still on. One of the peculiar features of this strike is the different reasons assigned Held in Court for Obtaining His They and an Alleged Receiver of Annual Meeting of the American Pensions for New York Firementary Strike is the different reasons assigned News of the Legislature. for it by the strikers and by the firm. their wages had reached the starvation point. The firm denies this, and says the only reason for the strike was that four men were employed who were ob-four men were employed who were obnoxious to the bulk of the men. The obnoxious men belong to no union.

"The wages we pay," said Mr. Lattemann to an "Evening World" reporter this morning, "are as high as those paid by any firm, and a good deal higher than those of most others. If the men will make an affidavit that they have struck for higher pay, I am willing to make another that they have not.

William L. Brower, President of the General Council of Shoemakers of New York, Brooklyn and vicinity, said the men were offered a new agreement in January. By this agreement the schedule of wages was so reduced that before signing it the men inquired of the National Council what they were to do, "Let the men hold their positions," was the answer. By this was meant that

"Let the men hold their positions," was the answer. By this was meant that the men should, on account of the bad times, sign anything in order to hold their positions, "We were, therefore positions, e were, therefore, practically co-by the firm into signing the cut-agreement," said one of the strik-

BURST A BLOOD VESSEL.

of Millionnire Wistor's Denth at Atlantic City.

ATLANTIC CITY N I Feb 22 -The o'clock yesterday morning of apoplexy, at the home on Massachusetts avenue, where he and his elder brother Richard have been living, is now in the care of G. Washington Powell, of Philadelphia, who for years past has had charge of Louis The brothers are said to be worth $14,- mily a sample of the business meth-which Mr. Wiman pursued during onnection with the firm, and when naily separated from it, over a year the amount of his shortage was and said he would not allow the body to be buried until after four days had elapsed. He felt sure his brother Louis would return to life. The bursting of a blood vessel, caused by a violent attack of asthma, is declared by the physi-cians to have been the cause of death. The Wistar brothers were bachelors. They have vast estates in Philadelphia and other parts of Pennsylvania. They were scentric as to their wearing an

GLENCLYFFE TO BE SOLD.

The Historic Country Seat of the Fish Family, on the Hudson.

(By Associated Press.) ALBANY, Feb. 22.-Hamilton Fish, jr. announced to-day that he would not continue to occupy the historic mansion at Glencivse, the well-known country seat of the Fish family, near Garrison's in Putman County.

nearly 500 acres of land on the Hudson opposite West Point. opposite West Point.
During the later years of his life Gov.
Fish expended large sums in the improvement of the property, which contains in addition to the brick dwelling-house, a brick stable, conservatories, barns, a dwelling for the superintendent and other outbuildings.

HAS TWO CRANK SHAFTS.

Brought by the Furnessia for th Alaska, Perhaps.

The steamer Furnessia, which arrived this morning from Glasgow, has board two crank shafts consigned to A. M. Underhill. They are supposed to be intended for the Guion steamer Alaska, at this port since Nov. 14, awaiting re-Mr. Wiman told the reporters ere waiting to see him that his would not attempt to secure his would not attempt to secure his pairs to her engines.

Two horses are on hoard, one of which is to be shipped to Texas. The other is consigned to a New York party. Four crates of prize fowls are also in the cargo.
The Furnessia passed through a succession of gales, and on Feb. 18 ran near

SMUGGLER FAIRY SEIZED.

Revenue Cutter Captures a British Steamer and Eight Chinese.

(By Associated Press.) PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Feb. 22. The British steamer Fairy, of Victoria, W. E. Barnes Accused of Passing was seized near Point Morrowstone yeserday by the Revenue Cutter Wolcott and eight Chinese aboard were captured. Two white smugglers, who had command of the steamer, escaped by rowing ashore in a small boat. The Fairy is a speedy craft, and has been engaged in Chinese smuggling for some time.

The United States Custom officers say she has landed over one hundred Chinese in this vicinity during the last few weeks, and is one of the most daring smugglers in the Northwest.

UNRULY ELEPHANT SHOT.

Wrecked a Circus Teut in a Florida Town Before Being Killed.

(By Associated Press.) MARIANNA, Fla., Feb. 22.-The large elephant Gipsey, belonging to the Harris Nickel Plate Show, was killed yesterday. The elephant became unruly and was chained down in the tent. He managed to escape again, tore down the tent, knocked one man down and came very near killing several people.

Twenty bullets were fired into him from a Winchester.

FELL FROM A FIRE-ESCAPE.

a fire-escape shortly after 12 o'clock tooutly Treasurer, was brought up ably prove fatal. She was watching nce at 9 o'clock last night. It Hein's Muskeeters, who were parading Hein's Muskeeters, who were parading on Henry street at the time, and in stepping across the fire-escape, fell through the opening, and struck on the sidewalk, three stories below. One leg was broken in two places, and her face was badly bruised.

Dr. Goldberg, of Catharine and Henry streets, was summoned, and Mrs. Carmel was taken to Gouveneur Hospital. She came to this country from Austria one week ago to join her husband, Isaac, a shirtmaker, now working in Philadelphia.

Waterbury Firm Burned Ont.

(By Associated Press.)
WATERBURY, Conn., Feb. 22.—Fire broke carly this morning in the big dry-goods store of Conlon Bros., located in a three-story wooder building in the heart of the business section of the sity. The flames theatened to spread to sur-rounding buildings, but the fire was got under con-trol and practically confined to the building, which was gutted.

Miner Killed by a Cave-In.

(By Associated Press.)

MIDDLESBOROUGH, Ky., Feb. 22.—There was a cave-in at the Mingo inner Tucclay, and Tom Jackson, a non-union man, was instantally killed and two other non-union miners were bedly hurt.

STILL OUT AT LATTEMANN'S. IS HE L. P. MORTON'S COUSIN? PLATE GLASS THEIR BOOTY. CROWDS SEE THE BOWWOWS. NEW TELEPHONE-RATE BILL.

Relationship with the Banker.

Richard Kearney, twenty-nine years

Kearney's mother was in court, and appeared considerably excited. She refused to say anything about her son. It is said that the son and his mother have

THERE'LL BE NO "BLOW OUT." Three of the Association Members

In the Essex Market Police Court today, Justice Hogan held three young men for trial in default of $1,000 bail each on a charge of burgiary. They were Max Kutner, seventeen years old, of 41 Jackson street; Ralph Krauss, eighteen years old, of 185 Allen street, and Max Simon, of 126 Stanton street.
The complainant against them was Simon Ruderman, who keeps a fruit cellar at 1 Rutgers place. His place was entered early this morning and $50 worth of fruit stolen.

Two of the defendants were arrested
When the Smiths awoke on the sec-entered early this morning and $60 worth of fruit stolen.

Two of the defendants were arrested in the rooms of the Harry Braache Association, at $4 Stanton street.

At 5 o'clock this morning Policeman Hoffman and Hasslinger, of the Eldridge street station, saw a light in the Club room, and, in peeping through a window, saw the men assorting fruit from a bag. As the policemen rapped on the window the two men turned out the light. The policemen entered and made the fellows prisoners.

The policeman carried the following stuff that they found in the room to the station-house, where it was claimed by Ruderman: Sixty-eight oranges, 56 packages of cheming tobacco, 275 packages of cigarettes.

cigarettes.

The three defendants admitted that they had broken into Ruderman's fruit cellar. They said they were members of the Braache Association and were going to give a "blow-out" this afternoon. The Club was short of funds, and they said they stole the fruit and cigarettes so they could treat their invited guests in a decent manner. so they could treat their in a decent manner.

The "blow-out" will not take place.

DOCTOR SHOOTS A FOOTPAD.

Abott a well-known physician, of this city, was shot by highwaymen at 8 o'clock last evening, and in turn shot and fatally wounded one of his assailants. Two highwaymen pointed revolvers at the doctor and commanded him to throw up his hands, but instead of doing so, he drew a revolver and fired at the robbers, hitting one of them in the abdomen. The other robber then fired four shots at the doctor, one of which caused a slight wounded highwayman gave his name as (By Associated Press.)
INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 22.—Dr. F. M.

ded highwayman gave his name as

Barnes, of 145 Twenty-first street, New York, was arrested early this morning on a charge of passing two worthless checks on Saloon-Keeper Adolph Franz. Bank of Commerce. Franz telegraphed and found that Barnes had no account there.

The address 145 East Twenty-first street is a boarding-house, kept by Mrs. Brockington. She said this morning that Barnes had boarded there for six months prior to Jan. 1. On that date he left, and has not been seen by her since. She knew nothing of him or his business.

BEATEN BY BURGLARS.

Foiled Safe Robbers.

Mrs. Jennie Carmel Thought to Be Fatally Injured.

Jennie Carmel, twenty-five years old, of 41 Henry street, accidentally fell from a fire-escape shortly after 12 o'clock to stupor or drowsiness.

They're guaranteed to give satisfaction

Truckmen Robbed Him.

warrant by Officer Tucker, of the York- wholesale plate glass dealer at 109 and interviewed the man in the box-office.

a letter purporting to come from his avenue, Richard Buttner, of 172 Spring asily enough, preferred to coo over some mother, Mrs. R. Kearney, of Portchester, street; Patrick Love, of 419 West Thirty-diminutive pug or spaniel.

and found that the burglar was the man Hague. Mrs. Smith ordered his arrest, and charged him with the theft of her sacque. When searched the pawn ticket for the sacque was found in his possession. It had been pawned at Simpson's for $20. He had a dozen other pawn tickets in his possession representing clothing.

This morning Justice Voorhis committed him to the island for three months in default of $500 bail.

SAYS SHE'S LE MOULT'S WIFE

A passer-by stopped the horse, but Mrs. Le Moult continued to scream. The officer placed her under arrest, and took her to the station-house.

There she told the sergeant at the desk that she was the wife of Emil Le Moult, a florist at 435 Fourth avenue. She asked that her husband be sent for. Her request was granted, but he did not appear at the station-house, and she therefore remained locked up all night. When arraigned in court this morning she refused to make any statement. Justice Welde told her that by her conduct she endangered not only her own life but that of others. When asked what she had to say, she maintained silence. She paid her fine and left the court.

She wore a sealskin sacque, a heavy black silk dress and diamonds on her fingers and in her ears.

WIDOW RINGS A BELL.

tands on the Street Demanding Money Paid for a Machine.

calico garment, with a faded shawi wrapped about her head, Mrs. Eliza Snook, a poor widow, took her stand yesterday directly in front of the City Hall with a large bell, which she rang

Hall with a large bell, which she rang constantly.

At the same time she displayed a large sign to the effect that a local justice had by legal process taken her sewing-machine, her only support, from her and returned it to the company from which she purchased it. But $1.25 remained due on the machine.

All day long she rang the bell, and in loud tones demanded that the amount she had paid for the machine, $39.30, be returned to her. At dusk she went home, but promised that she would return this morning and continue the dingdong until she recovered the machine or her money.

way this morning. He took it to the Delancey headquarters, where it was placed in charge of Marron Travers. The child was clad in a bigs and slate-colored dress, and a white woollen hoos with hink hows. The was wrapped in a white woollen shawl.

Think the Woman Was Poisoned. TRENTON, N. J., Feb. 22 .- The police are in-Prederick Goldberg, nineteen years old, of 79 Stanton street; was sentenced to the island for we months in the Essex Market Court forday.

Alleged Thief Kearney Claims Dealer Nathan Hutkoff Says Seven School Children Flock to the It Proposes a State Commission

The six truckmen who were arrested. The doors of the Madison Square Garold, who says he lives at the Continental yesterday on a charge of conspiring to den had hardly been opened this morn-Hotel, was arrested this morning on a rob their employer, Nathan Hutkoff, a ing before a respectable sized crowd had phone bill was introduced by Mr. Gerst. under which he thinks this can be done ville Police Court, and was afterwards arraigned.

Ill Wooster street, pleaded not guilty in Jefferson Market Court this morning, boilday, for the little ones were out in gineer and Attorney-General shall be not, he will remain in the box-onice.

Of Buriato, in the Assembly to-day. It will be whether his certificate is accepted or not, he will remain in the race until the Kearney was arrested on complaint and were held in $1,500 bell each for force. Strangely enough they did not constituted a Commission to receive ballots are counted election night, of George B. Kip, manager of Samuel Hoffman's clothing house, at 202 Broadway. He charges Kearney with having Joseph Neal, of 75 Melville street, Brookpreferred to stand in silent awe before obtained a suit of clothing valued at $55 jyn; Patrick Coyne, of 1710 Amsterdam the majestic St. Bernards, Great Danes last August on false representations, and avenue; Charles McGinn, of 2143 Second and mastiffs, while their mammas, curi-

Great Dog Show.

mother, Mrs. R. Kearney, of Portchester, N. Y.
Kearney is a good-looking man and wears light side whiskers and mustache.
He was attired in a light English tweed suit and wore a marcon colored cravat, in which was placed a neat diamond pin.
He was covered by a waterproof ulster.
When brought into court Kearney was nervous, but in conversation with a lawyer he said that he was a cousin to Levi P. Morton, the banker and ex-VicePresident, and that his mother was a cousin of Chauncey M. Depew.
The accused became confused, and later said he did not want the fact of his big relations published in the newspapers. This, he said, was for their benefit.
Kearney's mother was in court, and appeared considerably excited. She refused to say anything about her son. It is said that the was another was. It is said that the was and blg mother hare. down in their stails during the greater part of the day and their beautiful proportions cannot be fairly appreciated.
In accordance with a rule of the Westminster Kennel Club allowing exhibitors are the many time, if the earnings of a company is proved to be less than 10 per cent. of its paidin capital, increase the rates to be charged.

logs. Nothing has yet been heard of the rish terrier which escaped from the l part payment. The truckmen, he alleges, often reported that the glass was a total loss, when, in reality, large pieces were saved and sold to Weinberg or to Levine. The truckmen it is alleged, have also stolen large plates from the store and disposed of them. It is said that the truckmen assisted each other in the robbery and divided the proceeds.

ENTERTAINED A THIEF.

Smith's Chance Acquaintance Stole His Wife's Scalskin Sacque.

Detective Ackerly, of the East Fifty-first street station, arraigned at the Yorkville Court this morning on a charge of burglary, a well-dressed man, who described himself as Samuel L. Hagus, thirty-eight years old, a speculator in gold mine stocks in South Africa, and staying at the Occidental Hotel, Broome street and Bowery.

The complainant against him was Mrs. Josephine Smith, the wife of a retired liquor dealer, of 150 East Forty-ninth street. Three weeks ago her husband took Hague ham pletced up an acquaintance with Smith on the street, and took a Hague had pletced up an acquaintance with Smith on the street, and took a When the Smiths awoke on the second morning, they found that Hague was gone, and that he had taken with him a new sealskin sacque belonging to Mrs. Smith, She was reclining on her lounge in the house, she at once suspected that the man was a burglar, and without attracting his attention.

CHESS TOURNAMENT REGINS.

CHESS TOURNAMENT BEGINS

New York Association. sixteenth annual midwinter meet ing of the New York State Chess Association was formally opened this morn ing by the President, Prof. J. H. Rogers good as expected, yet the entries for the came almost up to the mark. The prizes for the championship tourney are $50, $20, $15 and $10. For the free for-all tourney $20, $15, $10, and two at tion.

In the free-for-all tournament, Hein de feated F. Huntington in twenty-four

FORGER IN ST. LOUIS.

Escapes After Passing Bad Checks. but His Tool Is Arrested.

(By Associated Press.) ST. LOUIS, Feb. 22.-A series of sys tematic forgeries and irregular financiering, committed at the expense of busi ness men and the Chemical Bank of this city, has resulted in the arrest of Benja-min E. Holliday, a young Chicagoan, and the escape of Hermer Franche, who is said to be one of the cleverest forgers in the West. Franche, under the name of G. B. Clark, opened an account at the of G. B. Clark, opened an account at the Chemical Bank.

Then, by a series of forged indorsements, in which he used the name of the S. A. Rider Jewelry Company, drawing the checks payable to Holliday, he succeeded in securing several sums, whose amounts have not been made public. He then fled, but Holliday was arrested, and alloges that his name was used by alleges that his name was Franche unknown to him. SATAN SUES SALVATION ARMY

His Satanic Majesty Wants $75,000 for Defamation of Character.

(By Associated Press.) CHICAGO Feb 22 -Salvation Army people are the defendants in a suit brought by Satan. His Darkness was Justice Riyan sail: recently convicted of all kinds of wickedness at a trial presided over by the Salvation Army, and now wants $75,000
Which ended the case. for damages to his reputation. His case will be heard before the Supreme Court of Common Sense at the West Madison street baracks, Sunday evening, and some interesting testimony is expected to be given.

His Satanic Majesty will be repre-mented by able counsel, and a cloud of witnesses will endeavor to establish his previous good character.

Claim Against "Paul Jones."

(By Associated Press.)
PROVIDENCE, R. L. Feb. 22 - Paul Jones, the TREASTON, N. J., red. 22.—the police are in the programme, in this city last night. He restigating the death of Mrs. Elizabeth finith, coigred, who was found dead this morning in bed, testile the woman was a lettle of laudanum. The police have arrested for husband, pending an investigation, as they think she met with foul claim.

(By Associated Press.) BOSTON, Feb. 22 --Gov. Greenhalge received the public in the Executive Cham-ber to-day, and more than 2.600 persons While drunk last night he assaulted his lather because he was told to go to work. The father stated that his son was so larsy that he wanted his breakfast taken to him in bed.

but there was no demonstration by the to Regulate Charges.

(By Associated Press.) complaints, fix rates and examine the books of all telephone companies. The companies must show their books and answer the questions of the Commission when required to do so, under penalty of law.

and mastiffs, while their mammas, curiasily enough, preferred to coo over some diminutive pug or spaniel.

In the morning exercise hour a fine opportunity was afforded to see some of the big dogs to advantage. They were trotted about by their keepers, and seemed to enjoy their brief period of liberty. Most of the havier animals lie entitling them to free use of pay serious data. entitling them to free use Committee Goes Over Till Monday.

It calls for a committee of five, to be appointed by the Speaker, to investigate the management and expenditures of the Department, and to report the results of their investigations to the Legislature on or before March 29, 1894. of their investigations to the Legislature on or before March 20, 1894. It went over until Monday night, when Mr. Robertson will put it in under reso-

PENSIONS FOR FIREMEN.

Mr. Ahearn Gets His Bill Providing for Them through the Senate. (By Associated Press.)

succeeded in getting through the Sen-ate this morning a bill providing for pensioning all the firemen of New York

ELECTION INSPECTORS' BILL.

Assembly Passes the O'Connor Non-Partison Measure. (By Associated Press.)

ALBANY, Feb. 22 - The O'Connor nonpartisan Inspector bill has passed the Assembly.
It provides for non-partisan boards throughout the State.

Patrick Monohan, of 434 West Fortysecond street, is a driver for Burns-Bros., of Delancey street, the coal dealers. On Jan. 22 Monohan started with a Appliances Being Introduced That load of coal which he was to deliver to G. R. Brown, of 17 Bloomfield street. He made a mistake and delivered the coal to Miss Leona Berger, who lives upon another basis, the electric field next door. Miss Berger, it seems, had is one that is making great strides in been expecting a ton of coal from the Tammany General Committee relief fund, and when the ton of coal arrived she told Monohan to dump it right in her cellar, He did so and did not find out his mistake until a day or two ago. He has been unable to collect for the coal and the firm of Burns Bros, has been deducting $1 a week from his wages to cover their loss.

Monohan obtained a summons and had
Mr. and Mrs. Brown and Miss Berger in Jefferson Market Court to-day. Here they argued the case before Justice Ryan without reaching all the facts in the case Justice Ryan said:

"I suppose the quickest and best way to settle this is to pay for the coal. I'll pay the bill, go home, all of you."
Which ended the case.

Alleged Policy Dealer Held.
Samuel Johnston, twenty-three years old, was been solved in a strates in p
the way of economical appliances.
Electricity is slowly but surely making great strates in p
the way of economical appliances.
Electricity is slowly but surely making great strates in p
the way of economical appliances.
Electricity is slowly but surely making great strates in p
the way of economical appliances.
Electricity is slowly but surely making great strates in p
the way of economical appliances.
Electricity is slowly but surely making great strates in p
the way of economical appliances.
Electricity is slowly but surely making great strates in p
the way of economical appliances.
Electricity is slowly but surely making great strates in p a revolution in housekeeping, says Hardware, and pleasantly robbing that department of a great deal of its drudgery and the tendency is still onward in devarient of a great deal of its drudgery and the tendency is still onward in deretrient of a great deal of its drudgery
and the tendency is still onward in devarient of a great deal of its drudgery
and the tendency is still onward in devarient of a great deal of its drudgery
and the tendency is still onward in deretrient of a great deal of its drudgery and the tendency is still onward in deretrient o been expecting a ton of coal from the the way of economical appliances.

Celebration in Baltimore.

(By Associated Press.)
DALTIMORE, Feb. 22 - The leading feature of tramp traveller, met with an experience not down the day's celebration in lialtimore was the un-on the programme, in this city last night. He veiling of the beautiful bronze tablet marking the site of old Congress Hall, Bultimore and Round About Town.

The man who died is a chair to the mioun 201 East Twenty-fifth street Feb. 12 was this morning identified at the Morgue through a photograph as that of Albert Lewaster, an engraver, thirty-five years old of 250 threes a venue, through my bears old of 250 threes a venue, through Millium Hoss. of 244 West Twenty-first street.

JURY DID NOT AGREE.

HOGAN GOES TO LAW.

Thinks He Can Force the Accep tance of His Certificate.

will be able to compel the Board of

HAD A HARNESS IN A BAG.

for Burglary.

Policeman Kelly, of the West Sixty-

Do Away with Drudgery.

Broke a Plate-Glass Window.

Renjamin Butler, of 211 East Seventy-third street, was held for trial at Jefferson Market Police Court to-day charged with throwing a beer stein through a $4 plate-glass window of the salcon 557 West Twenty-seventh sirect.

Hotel Man Fined for Assault.

PORTCHESTER, N. Y. Feb. 22.—John Hag-gerty, proprietor of the Stack House, on West-chester avenue, has been fined $15 for beating Visiting J. Wright on Sunday less.

The afteenth annual conference of the State S-

The situation in the Eighth Ward, Ballotted All Night for a Verdict Brooklyn, is becoming more complicated Matthew Hogan, whose certificate of in the Blaut Case.

nomination for Supervisor as indepen dent Democrat was filed las Monday and rejected by the Board of Elections Stood Seven for Acquittal and Five because of improper acknowledgment, has consulted his counsel, Mr. Joseph Sullivan, and Mr. Sullivan is positive that for Conviction.

After a conference lasting seventeen hours the jury disagreed in the case of Joseph T. Blaut, charged with perjury, falsely swearing to the June, 1893, quarterly report of the Madison Square pendent Republican candidate. Signed to Mi Hanbury's certificate are the names of Morris Seelman and Edward Edwards, whose names are also found on the certificate of Charles Krombach, who was nominated as the Citizens' candidate in addition to having the regular Democratic nomination. The twelve men selected to pass judgthe Court of Over and Terminer at 11.05 this forenoon. They all presented evidences of fatigue and showed that their

> After answering to their names the clerk asked Foreman Eli Samuels if a verdict had been agreed upon, and he McMahon, adealer in rages and bottles, had been in consultation so long without to the Yorkville Police Court this morn-ing on the charge of burglary. Frank billity that they would not, he could de to the Yorkville Police Court this morning on the charge of burglary. Frank Goss, a stable-keeper at 158 West Sixty-sixth street, was the complainant.

Kelly saw the prisoners riding in a wagon at 3 o'clock this morning. When they arrived at Sixty-sixth street and Tenth avenue, Kelly looked into a bag in the wagon and found it held a harness. They could not satisfactorily explain how it came in their possession, and both were arrested.

Kelly says he afterwards learned that the harness had been stolen from Goss's stable, into which the prisoners had broken, Justice Voorhis held them for trial.

TROUBLE AT BLUEFIELDS.

Described to Iowa People in a Letter, under date of Feb. 13, was received at last evening by relatives from H. G. Highley, of Bluefields, Mosquito Nation, in which it is stated that the Commissioners of Nicaragua ordered the Mosquito flag flow of the green of the jury's all-night deliberation, the prisoner of Part I. of the Special holsted in Bluefields, which is now occupite, by 600 soldiers.

Though no shots had been fired and no houses pilliaged, many natives had taken from the Tombs last night. The prisoner looked extremely wearied and was palpably anxious as to the outcome of the jury's all-night deliberation, the firm of the Supreme Court, on the second floor of the County Court-House, They were taken over to Leggett's Hotel at 7.30 o'clock this morning for the prisoner in the Tombs last night in the presoner looked extremely wearied and was palpably anxious as to the outcome of the jury's all-night deliberation. The jury passed the entire night in the Chamber of Part I. of the Special Term of the Supreme Court, on the second floor of the County Court-House. They were taken over to Leggett's Hotel at 7.30 o'clock this morning for the prisoner is the Tombs last night in the presoner in the Tombs last night in the presoner in the Tombs last night in the presoner in the trong the prisoners in the prisoner in the Tombs last night that they would inchange in the prisoner in the fact that the purp

Hotel at 7.30 o'clock this morning for breakfast a distinguished fellow-pris-oner in the Tombs last night in the per-son of Erastus Wiman, the broken-down capitalist, arrested yesterday afternoon for forgery. Blaut said he had no con-versation with Wiman, and added that the latter appeared to be uncommonly dejected.

LIVED 105 YEARS.

Bluefields is ordered, and it is declared in a s*-- slege.

Ine proclamation decrees that the authorities of the Mosquito Government shall be ignored, that the Commissioner of the Republic will organize according to necessity a regime of administration and police, and that no crafts can leave the city or port without a pass from the office of Cabezas. The funeral of Mrs. Nanette Leve, who died last Tuesday evening at the home One Hundred and Eighth street, at the years, was held at the house this morning. After the services the body was a vote of 93 year and no negatives. It makes it a penal offense to sell stocks or futures on margin, and fixes a penalty of $250 for each offense.

New Third Avenue Bridge Bill.

(By Associated Press.)

ALBANY, Feb. 22—In the Assembly to-day, by unanimous consent, Mr. Davidson introduced a measure amending the act of 1892, providing for a bridge over the Harlem River, at Third avenue, The bill authorizes the Comptroller of New York City to pay awards for the lands taken for the purpose of constructing said bridge.

Building Code for Brooklyn.

(By Associated Press.)

ALBANY, Feb. 21—In the Assembly this morning, by unanimous consent, Mr. Taylor introduced a bridge.

Building Code for Brooklyn.

(By Associated Press.)

ALBANY, Feb. 21—In the Assembly this morning, by unanimous consent, Mr. Taylor introduced to the Cities Committee. The bill provides elaborate the Comptroller of New York of the Cities Committee. The bill provides elaborate to the Cities Committee. The bill provides elaborate has been confirmed to the consciousness almost to the last moment. Although deepived of her eversed freely with her friends. Her conversed the body was taken to washington Cemetery, near Coney Island, for laterment. Mrs. Leve was one of a family of six children, four girls and two boys, all of whom were born in Vanette was a merchant. Nanette was married at the accommittance. Mrs. Leve was one of a family of six children, four girls and two boys, all of whom were born in Vanette was an error in Vanette was a merchant. Nanette was an error in Vanette of the Union Pacific system to Coney Island, for interment. Mrs. Leve was an error of a family of six children, four girls and two boys, all of whom were born in Vanette of the vanet of the second of the second her mother are just now engaged in a legal fight for the property in question, but Lawyers Le Barbier & Ammon, of the Pulltare Building, who have begun suit for Miss Duryea, are confident that their client will be successful.

ae estate involved was accumulated by Anton Duryea, who died in 1879. No trace of his brother, Baptiste, could be foune. Another brother, John, had a son, Anton, who was the father of Miss Duryea. ae became insane, went to an asylum, and in November, 1889, disappeared. He is believed to be dead.

Anton, sr.'s wife died in 1890. Her relatives took control of the estate, and the relatives of Anton, jr.'s, wife, who died in child birth, instituted suit.

The case will come up in the Paris courts for trial in April. May Duryea's relatives practically deserted her, and coming to this country two years ago, she went upon the stage. Shrewd Parisian lawyers thought that she was the rightful heir to old Anton's fortune, and through Le Barbier & Ammon, located her.

MAJOR LLEWELLYN'S DEATH.

Resulted from Injuries Several Weeks Ago, at Lexington, Ky. Major David H. Llewellyn died at his residence, 45 East One Hundred and Twenty-third street, at 4.30 o'clock yes-alighting from a train. The Major was born in Wales fiftytwo years ago, coming to this country when but an infant, and being brought past ten days have caused a freshet in all the s reams in this section. The lown of Geneva. Als., on the Chectawhatchic River, is more than half submerged, and the river is still rising.

Alabama Town Flooded. (Dy Assortated Press.)

雅 not been on good terms for some time, owing to some misunderstanding.

Mr. Klp, the complainant, was represented in court by Lawyer Milton S. Guiderman, who says he will prosecute Kearney and show who he is.

At the request of Kearney, the case was adjourned until next Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and he was put under $1,000 ball.

Arrested for Theft.

a Fight with Robbers.

NEW YORKER ARRESTED.

Worthless Checks NEWARK, N. J., Feb. 22.-William E.

Three Men and a Boy Attacked by

(By Associated Press.) ST. LOUIS, Feb. 22.—Four masked men made a desperate attempt to rob a large safe in the office of the Hazel Flour Mill in East St. Louis early this morning Finding a watchman and a boy, they bound and gagged both, after beating > dull, inexpressibly tired or debilitated, have loss of appetite, furred tongue, frequent head. IF YOU FEEL DROWSY. frequent head-aches with or without dizzi-ness, chiliy sensations, and oc casional nausea gently stimulating and powerfully invigorating effects of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. These little things will put you in complete order.

They follow Nature's own way. They're the smallest, the easiest to take, and the best. They absolutely and permanently cure Billiousness, Constipation, Jaundice, Dizziness, Sour Stomach, Sick or Bilious Headaches, Indigention, and consequent stupor or drowsiness. in every way and in every care, or your money is returned. You pay only for the good you get. Nothing else can be "just as good"

In the Essex Market Police Court to- described himself as Samuel L. Hague.

When the Smiths awoke on the second morning, they found that Hague was gone, and that he had taken with him a new sealskin sacque belonging to Mrs. Smith. She was reclining on her lounge in the front room at 8.30 o'clock last evening when she beheld the figure of a man in the kitchen.

As her husband was absent from home, and being alone in the house, she at once suspected that the man was a burglar, and without attracting his attention slipped out of the house and summoned Policeman Ackerly.

The policeman hurried into the house and found that the burglar was the man Hague. Mrs. Smith ordered his arrest, and charged him with the theft of her rested for Intoxication. A handsomely dressed woman, about thirty-five years old, who said she was Mrs. Minnie Le Moult, of 436 Fourth avenue, was arraigned in Harlem Police Court this morning on a charge of intoxication, and was fined $10. Policeman

Outlier toxication, and was fined $10. Policeman

Toxication, and was fined $10. Policeman

(By Associated Press.)
DETROIT, Mich., Feb. 22.—Clad in

Found a Buby in His Hallway. Eugene McNamee, of 200 Delancey street, found girl bely about three months old, in his halfarest police station, and from there to Police

TO INVESTIGATE ANDREWS.

(By Associated Press.)
ALBANY, Feb. 22.—Assemblyman Robertson tried to introduce into the Legis-iature to-day his resolution calling for an investigation into the Department of street-Cleaning of New York City. It calls for a committee of five, to be years, whether they not.

The pension is to be half pay at the rate they were being paid when re-

The Anti-Bucket Shop Bill. (By Associated Press.)
ALBANY, Feb. 22.—The Anti-Bucket Shop bill passed the Assembly to-day by the Cities Committee. The bill provides enaborates laws for the erection of fire-proof and sanitary perfect buildings.

State Senate's Long Holiday.

(By Associated Press.)

ALBANY, Feb. 22.—The State Senate adjourned to-day until Monday night. The Assembly will hold a session to-morrow.

IUSTICE RYAN PAID THE BILL.

Thought That the Easiest Way of Settling the Dispute.

Cided on their action is that the United States Judges in Colorado, where a portion Pacific system extends, do not sanction the method in which the shedule has been prepared. Hecciver Oilver W. Mink told an "Evening World" reporter that the receivers would probably arrive at a condusion about the schedule on Friday. He said a reduction in wages was imperative, the only question now being discussed was what such a reduction should be.

Mr. Mink was unprepared to say how much of a saving the new schedule would make, but he said the payroll for last year amounted to $1,100,000 a month.

Settling the Dispute.

Samuel Johnston, twenty-three years old, was held for examination in $500 ball in Harlem Pohere for examination in some ball in Hariom Po-line Court this morning charged with violating the Policy and Lettery laws at 951 Columbus ave-tue. He pleaded not guilly. The decrective who made the arrest ways the name given by the pris-oner is fictitious, and that his real name is Outno.

bis breakfast taken to him in bid.

Myers Held for Swindling.

Augustus W. Myers, the young man accused of swindling Louis Ravel, of its West Twenty-fourth street, out of a 19t-board bill, was held for trial in 1900 bell, by Justice Ryan, at Jesseyon Market Court, to-day, Myers is the man who claimed to Tarrytown. They will return at a bot another would be a sephew of ex-Comptroller Myers.

In the directory,

Dut there was no demonstration by the unemployed.

Bloth's Sudden Death.

Joseph P. Bloth, forty-five years old, died suddenly in 1900 bell, by Justice Ryan, at Jesseyon Market Polyte Court to-day, Myers is the man who claimed to Tarrytown. They will return at a bot an applied to minement.

Co-operative Cigar-Makers, manufacturing of a shoot furnities and the river is still rising.

The main factory of the Noble Manufacturing Company, manufacturing to company, manufacturing and waster to day, about $10,000.

Harry Temple, silas Griffith, a well-known wastern painter, was arrested at Wheeling W Valuation as charge of biggany.

Co-operative Cigar-Makers, the manufacturing to school furnities and the river is still rising.

Co-operative Cigar-Makers.

UTICA. Feb. 22.—The Co-operative Cigar-Makers, ween painter, was arrested at Wheeling W Valuation as charge of biggany.

Where the discount of $250 West Thirty con Manufacturing to a shoot furnities and waster to a shoot $250 Mess and the river is still rising.

Co-operative Cigar-Makers.

UTICA. Feb. 22.—The Co-operative Cigar-Makers ween painter, was arrested at Wheeling W Valuation as charge of biggany.

Where the discount of $250 West Thirty for $250 Mess Thirty for Elections to accept Mr. Hogan's certifi-ALBANY, Feb. 22.—An important tele- cate. He has found a clause in the law The Ex-Banker Spent the Night in the Tombs.

> made to cause the rejection of the certificate of Richard Hanbury, the Indedeliberations had been wearisome said: "We have not agreed" ighth street station, arraigned Charles | Justice Barrett then said that under Flanagan, a soapfat man, and William the circumstances, the fact that they quito flag down and the Nicaraguan flag hoisted in Bluefields, which is now occupie. by 600 soldiers.

Though no shots had been fired and no houses pillaged, many natives had taken refuge in the woods. Accompanying the letter is a copy of an official proclamation, bearing the date Feb. 12, issued by Risoberto Cabezas, Intendenta General of the Allantic coast of the Nicaraguan Government. The proclamation cites that "Chief of the Mosquito Reservation having refused the right of Nicaragua put forces in its territory, opposed openly the mobilization of troops and categorically denied the sovereignity of sicaragua. Military occupation of Bluefields is ordered, and it is declared in a stage.

Mrs. Nanette Leve Buried in Washington Cemetery To-Day.

NEW USES FOR ELECTRICITY. In the transition through which the whole world is passing in placing itself terday afternoon. His death was result of an injury received in Lexington, Ky., several weeks ago, while when but an infant, and being brought up in Lexington. He served in the Confederate Army during the late war, as a private, and later as aide on the staffs of Generals Early and Morgan, and was wounded in the battle of Shiloh.

Major Liewellyn belonged to the Republic Lodge, F. and A. M., as well as several army and political clubs. The funeral services with Masonic Order will be read over the body to-morrow evening.

PENSACOLA, Fla., Feb. 72.-Rains during th